

Parents are encouraged to participate in the Home and School Association. Parent orientation meetings, seminars, programs, etc. are offered for parent education. The non-profit organization provides parent involvement in school volunteer programs and in fundraising for equipment and improvement in the environment for the children. Parent participation is vital to quality education and to the "Montessori Family" established at the school.

{gallery}Home__School{/gallery}